1. The 106th Article of War, enacted by Congress August 29, 1916 (39 Stat., 677), provides that:

"It shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States, to arrest offenders, summarily to arrest a deserter from the military service of the United States and deliver him into the custody of the military authorities of the United States."

2. Paragraph 121, Army Regulations, 1913, provides that:

"121. A reward of $50 will be paid to any civil officer or civilian for the apprehension and delivery, to the proper military authorities at a military post, of a deserter from the military service, except a deserter from the Philippine Scouts, for whose apprehension and delivery a reward of $20 will be paid. A reward of $50 will also be paid for the apprehension and delivery, to the proper military authorities at a military post, of an escaped military prisoner. No reward will be paid in the case of a deserter or of an escaped military prisoner who is serving in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in the case of a deserter who, subsequently to his desertion, has been dishonorably discharged from any other enlistment in the Army, or who can claim exemption from punishment under the 39th Article of War. The reward will be paid by the Quartermaster Corps, and will be in full satisfaction of all expenses for arresting, keeping, and delivering the deserter or escaped military prisoner. * * *"

3. Under the 39th Article of War, referred to in paragraph 121, Army Regulations, quoted above, a soldier who deserts in time of peace can not be tried for that offense after the expiration of three years from the date of desertion.

4. Paragraph 119, Army Regulations, provides that "Whenever a desertion occurs from any post or station, or command in the field, the commanding officer will cause a report of the desertion to be made, in triplicate, on the prescribed form, and will forward same together with a descriptive list of the deserter directly to The Adjutant General of the Army. * * *"

1. The 106th Article of War, enacted by Congress August 29, 1916 (39 Stat., 677), provides that:

"It shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States, to arrest offenders, summarily to arrest a deserter from the military service of the United States and deliver him into the custody of the military authorities of the United States."

2. Paragraph 121, Army Regulations, 1913, provides that:

"121. A reward of $50 will be paid to any civil officer or civilian for the apprehension and delivery, to the proper military authorities at a military post, of a deserter from the military service, except a deserter from the Philippine Scouts, for whose apprehension and delivery a reward of $20 will be paid. A reward of $50 will also be paid for the apprehension and delivery, to the proper military authorities at a military post, of an escaped military prisoner. No reward will be paid in the case of a deserter or of an escaped military prisoner who is serving in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in the case of a deserter who, subsequently to his desertion, has been dishonorably discharged from any other enlistment in the Army, or who can claim exemption from punishment under the 39th Article of War. The reward will be paid by the Quartermaster Corps, and will be in full satisfaction of all expenses for arresting, keeping, and delivering the deserter or escaped military prisoner. * * *"

3. Under the 39th Article of War, referred to in paragraph 121, Army Regulations, quoted above, a soldier who deserts in time of peace can not be tried for that offense after the expiration of three years from the date of desertion.

4. Paragraph 119, Army Regulations, provides that "Whenever a desertion occurs from any post or station, or command in the field, the commanding officer will cause a report of the desertion to be made, in triplicate, on the prescribed form, and will forward same together with a descriptive list of the deserter directly to The Adjutant General of the Army. * * *"

1. The 106th Article of War, enacted by Congress August 29, 1916 (39 Stat., 677), provides that:

"It shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States, to arrest offenders, summarily to arrest a deserter from the military service of the United States and deliver him into the custody of the military authorities of the United States."

2. Paragraph 121, Army Regulations, 1913, provides that:

"121. A reward of $50 will be paid to any civil officer or civilian for the apprehension and delivery, to the proper military authorities at a military post, of a deserter from the military service, except a deserter from the Philippine Scouts, for whose apprehension and delivery a reward of $20 will be paid. A reward of $50 will also be paid for the apprehension and delivery, to the proper military authorities at a military post, of an escaped military prisoner. No reward will be paid in the case of a deserter or of an escaped military prisoner who is serving in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in the case of a deserter who, subsequently to his desertion, has been dishonorably discharged from any other enlistment in the Army, or who can claim exemption from punishment under the 39th Article of War. The reward will be paid by the Quartermaster Corps, and will be in full satisfaction of all expenses for arresting, keeping, and delivering the deserter or escaped military prisoner. * * *"

3. Under the 39th Article of War, referred to in paragraph 121, Army Regulations, quoted above, a soldier who deserts in time of peace can not be tried for that offense after the expiration of three years from the date of desertion.

4. Paragraph 119, Army Regulations, provides that "Whenever a desertion occurs from any post or station, or command in the field, the commanding officer will cause a report of the desertion to be made, in triplicate, on the prescribed form, and will forward same together with a descriptive list of the deserter directly to The Adjutant General of the Army. * * *"

The act of Congress approved June 18, 1898, provides that "It shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or District, to arrest offenders, to summarily arrest a deserter from the military service of the United States, and deliver him into the custody of the military authority of the General Government."

A reward of $50 is payable to any civil officer or civilian for the apprehension and delivery, to the proper military authorities at a military post, of a deserter from the military service, except a deserter from the Philippine Scouts, for whose apprehension and delivery a reward of $20 will be paid. A reward of $50 is also payable for the apprehension and delivery, to the proper military authorities at a military post, of an escaped military prisoner. The reward is paid by the Quartermaster's Department, and is in full satisfaction of all expenses incurred in arresting, keeping, and delivering the deserter or escaped military prisoner. No reward is payable in the case of a deserter or of an escaped military prisoner who is serving in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in the case of a deserter who subsequently to his desertion has been dishonorably discharged from any other enlistment in the Army, or who can claim exemption from punishment under the 103d Article of War, which provides that "No person shall be tried or punished by a court-martial for desertion in time of peace and not in the face of an enemy, committed more than two years before the arraignment of such person for such offense, unless he shall meanwhile have absented himself from the United States, in which case the time of his absence shall be excluded in computing the period of the limitation: Provided, That said limitation shall not begin until the end of the term for which said person was mustered into the service." A soldier who deserted in time of peace, and who has resided in the United States for a period of two years subsequently to the expiration of the term for which he was enlisted, is exempt, therefore, from punishment for his offense.

10. It appears from the records on file that Charles H. Johnson, NSN, was granted a furlough from July 25, 1917, to and including July 29, 1917. It appears that upon expiration of this furlough he did not report for Federal service when his company was called in July 25, 1917 and nothing is found to show that he rendered any active service between July 25, 1917 and July 2, 1918.
